SEC courses are value-based and / or skill-based with a focus on practical training, competencies, and other abilities.

16. Academic bank of credits (ABC):

SMJN PG College offers a wide range of courses from numerous academic credits and adheres to Choice Based Credit System. As we are an affiliating college, we are required to abide by the rules and regulations of Sri Dev Suman Uttarakhand University and HNB Garhwal (Central) University, Srinagar, Garhwal, Uttarakhand.

17. Skill development:

Various co-curricular activities were organised by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell in collaboration with internal committees with reference to skill development. Many activities focusing the CBCS's skill enhancement programme were also conducted by the faculty members. The concerned departments and the placement cell organised seminars and lectures on skill improvement in addition to CBCS.

18. Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course)

SMJN PG College is an affiliated institution. The college has an aim to provide the quality education with the approach of overall development of the students. To keep the importance of inherent linguistic, cultural, and geographic heterogeneity, the college provides the education to the students with appropriate integration of Indian knowledge system. Faculty members use both Hindi and English to interact with students from various cultural backgrounds and assist them in adjusting to their new surroundings. Students are intended to learn about the variety of Indian culture through cocurricular activities organised by the Internal quality Assurance Cell in collaboration with internal committees and NGOs. The Indian language courses in Sanskrit and Hindi provide many opportunities for engagement with indigenous knowledge.

19.Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):

Every course in the CBCS system offered by the college is focused on the program's and the course's learning objectives. The faculty members are kept themselves up to date through FDPs, workshops, orientation, and refresher programmes to promote curriculum delivery. The career counselling cell assisted students in making career decisions by offering advice and counselling sessions through expert-led lectures and interactive sessions. Co-curricular activities, like online tests, contests, webinars, and paper presentations, encourage students to think creatively and prepare them for future endeavours.

20.Distance education/online education:

During the Covid-19 pandemic, the online education is implemented by the SMJN PG College. Many techniques of knowledge sharing over distance through online methods of teaching (PPTs, Video presentations, Video lectures, Google tools, online weblinks) were used during the academic session. With the use of technology, the size of the world is diminished, and knowledge is shared to all through virtual platforms. Due to the need and urgency of implementation of online education, the hesitation and foot dragging to use technology in teaching have faded.

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curricular Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 - The Institution ensures effective curriculum delivery through a well planned and documented process

SMJN PG College has a mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery through a proper documentation process. The college is affiliated to Sri Dev Suman University and HNB Garhwal University and it follows the university's recommended curriculum. At the starting of session, students are provided with the knowledge about vision and mission of the college. Time table is created in accordance with the department requirements and university's teaching schedule. The UG and PG class schedule is created by the Time Table Committee and then published on college website after approval of Principal. Students can get university-approved syllabus from the university's official website. Head(s)/In-Charge(s) provides the University's CBCS syllabus (s) to the faculty members. A thorough lesson plan is created by the faculty members and lectures are organized according to the teaching plan. Every effort is made to cover complete syllabus during academic session. The Principal frequently monitors a progress report on the completion of the curriculum. Faculty members are encouraged to attend orientations / refresher programs, FDPs, Seminars and training programs to enrich themselves with latest knowledge. In addition to typical classroom amenities, some classrooms also offer ICT ones. With group discussions, exams, and other activities, teachers stimulate interactive learning among their students.

1.1.2 - The institution adheres to the academic calendar including for the conduct of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE)

The SMJN PG college follows the academic calendar as set by the university with some slight adjustments for sessional and internal exams at the college level. The academic calendar is prepared by Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). Further, the academic calendar is finalized and approved by the Principal.

The Academic calendar of the institution includes:

- Important dates for admission
- Commencement date of academic session
- Submission date of examination forms

Tentative dates of Internal and main examinations and summer and winter break are also mentioned in the academic calendar.

Students are also prepared to follow the academic calendar (especially for the internal and external exams and submission of assignments). Annual college events, sports meet and other activities/programs are planned by the committee heads in tune with the academic calendar.

The CBCS pattern, allows continuous evaluation through internal tests along with the external examination. To maintain the sanctity of the internal exams, question papers are set under the confidential supervision of the principal. To maintain transparency, answer sheets are revealed and list of marks obtained are displayed for the students. In addition, periodical class test, project work, assignments, regular attendance, presentations, and other methods are used for continuous evaluation.

6.3.5 - Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

Teaching Staff The annual performance appraisal of the faculty members is done annually by Internal Quality Assurance Cell and Principal through self appraisal forms, to be filled up by the individual faculty members. The Annual Quality Assurance Report (AQAR) for the relevant year is also prepared by the IQAC using the data from these forms. These evaluation forms give each faculty member the chance to evaluate annually how well they performed and what they contributed to the disciplines of academics, research, extracurricular activities, and professional development. The principal also evaluates the self-appraisal form.

Non Teaching Staff

The separate heads of the several Departments, as well as various divisions like the office, library, etc, conduct personal evaluations of the non-teaching staff's performance on a regular basis. The OS (Office Superintendent) is regularly updated on this assessment. The OS notifies the Principal of the performance evaluation after having it verified.

6.4 - Financial Management and Resource Mobilization

6.4.1 - Institution conducts internal and external financial audits regularly Enumerate the various internal and external financial audits carried out during the year with the mechanism for settling audit objections within a maximum of 200 words

SMJN College has established a mechanism for conducting internal and external audits. An Internal Audit Committee is constituted by the Principal for internal audit and an Auditor is appointed by the College Management Committee. The Committee visits the Accounts Office during the process of internal audit and scrutinises the receipts, bills, vouchers, payment slips at micro level. The receipts and payments are verified from these supporting documents and also matched with their entries in the books. In case any deviation is found the Committee puts on these deviations to the Office Superintendent / Account Officer. Office Superintendent corrects it immediately and the deviation is removed. A qualified Chartered Accountant is appointed as External Auditor by the College Management Committee, who conducts the financial audit every financial year. The Auditor thoroughly checks and verifies all the financial transactions made during a financial year. The annual income and expenditure are verified with entries in the financial records including books of accounts. External auditor is responsible to see and ensure that all payments are approved by a competent authority as appointed by the Principal or Management as applicable. When audit is completed, the draft report is submitted to the office for review and clarifications.
